

Romántico

- a film by Mark Becker
- featuring Carmelo Muñoz Sánchez

---

NOMINATED • TWO INDEPENDENT SPIRIT AWARDS
NOMINATED • SUNDANCE GRAND JURY PRIZE
GRAND PRIX • BILAN DU FILM • PARIS
SPECIAL JURY PRIZE • SILVERDOCS
BEST FILMS OF 2005 • LA WEEKLY

Sundance • Los Angeles • Lincoln Center • Boston • San Sebastian
Morelia • Nyon: Visions du Réel • Munich • Karlovy Vary • Hawaii
Vienna • LA Latino • New Zealand • Silverdocs • MASS MoCA
Copenhagen • Bogota • Bilan du Film: Paris • Thessaloniki
Rencontres Internationales du Documentaire de Montreal

---

“A rich, devastating portrait.”
LA Weekly, Critics Choice

“Romántico... has an unmistakably soulful quality.”
Los Angeles Times

“A lovely, touching, moving... portrait.”
AO Scott, New York Times

“The most strongly drawn and finely shaded portrait in the festival [Sundance]”
Film Comment

Synopsis: Romántico is a documentary portrait of Mexican musician Carmelo Muniz, who returns home to his young daughters after years playing the San Francisco taquería circuit. Their reunion is bittersweet, as once Carmelo arrives in his hometown, he finds himself confronted with the million reasons he left in the first place years ago. At the age of 60, another border crossing begins to seem absurd, but Carmelo has not given up...

About the film: Romántico is filmed cinematically in 16-mm film. The total running time is 80 minutes.

Please see www.meteorfilms.org for more information about Romántico.